Description

Harriet's graphic mix of colours infuses a room with playful personality and demension through structured geometric shapes, creating a stylish expression. Colourways range from comfortable, neutral tones to striking accent colours reflecting an organic and versatile palette. The use of colour emphasizes different effects of the design: subtle shades create a soft effect while more contrasting tones give a room a dramatic feel. Harriet's substrate and coordinating pattern, Oliver, provides a clean, textural emboss that complements the design and brings it to the next level.
